A 19th Century VALENTINE ROMANTIC INTERLUDE

This package is designed to "WOW" your Valentine and take you back to those romantic times of yesteryear.

This package is available February 1 through February 20.

Arrive at the Boone's Colonial Inn with mimosas and champagne to toast to the beginning of a fabulous evening.

A bouquet of flowers await you in your suite along with a romantic note written on hand made paper with a quill pen and sealed in an envelope with wax.

Wrap yourself in the carriage blanket and warm your feet on our carriage warming stone, as you clip-clop through the historic district enjoying Bailey's and hot chocolate.

On your return to the Inn, you will find a presentation of chocolates and a bottle of red wine in your room along with a romantic movie for your evening enjoyment.

The night attire: A 19th century sleeping shirt for the gentleman and a French Corset for his lady. Other clothing optional.

BOONE'S COLONIAL INN PACKAGES

The Vine & Wine Package

DINNER AT THE VINE WINE BAR & BISTRO

Wine, Cheeses, Breads and Spreads before dinner.

The Vine, located directly across the street from Boone's Colonial Inn, offers fine dining in a romantic atmosphere. The early 20th century house provides the ambiance and the owners, Mike and Kara, provide the incredible gourmet dinners and hospitality. Our guests at the Inn raved about the Vine so much that we created the Vine and Wine package. Mike and Kara have used their culinary skills to design an exclusive menu for guests of the Inn. This dinner includes special wine pairings created just for this package. Call today to reserve your special evening.

ANNIVERSARY INSPIRATIONS

"What should we do for our anniversary?" This age old question (usually asked by men!) can be answered at the Boone's Colonial Inn. Our complete anniversary package begins with a few questions about personal tastes. We then design a romantic experience that can include fresh flowers, chocolate selections, carriage rides, and spa packages. Guests may choose to have dinner prepared and served in their room, in our romantic stone alcove (weather permitting), or by our charming 19th century cast iron stove. This package includes a one-night stay in one of our three historic suites.

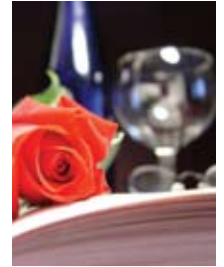

BASIC PACKAGE:

$485 for French or Spanish Colonial Suites
$585 for Thomas Jefferson Suite

“COME SEE ME” PACKAGE

❁ Need a home away from home? This package has been designed to give you that feeling of a home setting for you and your student at Lindenwood. This package provides some special time with your son or daughter as well as some special time for you. Family meals, together, are one place where family ties are reunited and sharing can occur. So, our package includes dinner with the under grad or grad at The Vine...a superb dining experience that is directly across the street from Boone's Colonial Inn. Your hosts, Mike and Kara, have designed a culinary experience just for our guests that will please even the most discriminating palates. After dinner, you and you family can gather around the pot-bellied stove at the Inn or on the back porch (if it is warm) and continue your conversations. Once the evening ends and your student returns to Lindenwood, a Spa bath experience waits for you in your room. To further the family time, please invite your son or daughter to join us for breakfast at the Inn the next morning.

Designed for you and your student at Lindenwood, this package gives you some special time with your son or daughter as well as some special time for you.
